The History of The Pain Clinic & The Pain Relief Foundation

The pain clinic at The Walton Centre is one of the largest in the UK, treating more than 3,000 patients a year. The clinic's founder and Director for nearly 30 years was the late Sam Lipton, who, together with later colleagues, pioneered many pain relieving techniques. Sam Lipton and two of his colleagues, John Miles, then Consultant Neurosurgeon, and David Bowsher, then a Reader at the University of Liverpool, set up The Pain Relief Foundation in 1979 as a Registered Charity. Supported entirely by voluntary contributions, the purpose of the Foundation was to create and run a Pain Research Institute in association with the clinic. The Pain Relief Foundation is currently situated in the Clinical Sciences Centre for Research and Education (CSCRE) on the Aintree University Hospitals Fazakerley Liverpool site.

Chris Wells succeeded Sam Lipton as Director of the Walton Centre pain clinic in 1983, John Wiles took over in 1994 and again took up the role and has replaced Dr Manohar Sharma the Director from 2011- 2017. In 2019 Chris Whitehead who is an Anesthetist has taken over as the departmental lead. In 1995 a Consultant Neurologist, Turo Nurmikko, and the then President of the Pain Society, Tim Nash, joined the Centre as full-time pain clinicians. In 2001 Turo Nurmikko was appointed as the Pain Relief Foundation Professor of Pain Science, at the University of Liverpool but has since retired in 2011 and has been replaced by Dr Andrew Marshall a Consultant Clinical Neurophysiologist, Dr Marshall has been appointed as a Senior Clinical Lecturer. Tim Nash retired in 2006. Manohar Sharma joined the Centre in 2004, Andreas Goebel in 2007, Bernhard Frank in 2009, Rajiv Chawla in 2010, and Sumit Gulati in 2013, Manish Gupta in 2015 as Consultants in Pain Medicine. Hemkumar Pushparaj was appointed as a specialist in 2022. In 2008 Andreas Goebel was appointed as a Clinical Senior Lecturer and was promoted to Reader in 2016 at the University of Liverpool. In 1993 Paul Eldridge joined as a neurosurgeon with a further colleague, Mr Varma joining in 2000. John Miles retired in 2001 & Mr Varma in 2008. Jibril Osman-Farah was appointed as a consultant neurosurgeon in 2008. The Pain Team at Walton Centre Pain Clinic currently has seven Pain Consultants and two Neurosurgeons with an interest in pain, who work in close association with the Pain Research Institute. The Pain Team also includes 8 psychologists led by Dr Kerry Mathews, 4 Pain and Neuromodulation Nurses, 10 Pain Specialist Physiotherapists and 7 Occupational Therapists. The Walton Centre also has a long-established Pain Management Programme.
